Title: [REDACTED]

GORDON B. HINCKLEY - PRESIDENT,
THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS
(LDS CHURCH),
50 EAST NORTH TEMPLE,
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH - VICTIM;
7/8/97
EXTORTION (A)

GRAND JURY MATERIAL - DISSEMINATE PURSUANT TO RULE 6(e) ARMED & DANGEROUS

Synopsis: This communication forwards a copy of an Arrest Warrant for [REDACTED] a Seattle resident.

Enclosures: An original and one copy of the Federal Arrest Warrant for [REDACTED] issued in the Central Division of Utah on July 23, 1997.

Details: [REDACTED] is a former student of the University of Utah located in Salt Lake City. In 1983, [REDACTED] was expelled from the University of Utah, leaving $24,000 worth of unpaid student loans. The University tried, without success, to collect the loans and eventually turned them over to a collection agency.

In May of 1997, the University began receiving letters from [REDACTED] regarding their attempts to collect the loans. The letters were directed to [REDACTED] and demanded that [REDACTED] loans be forgiven or paid for by [REDACTED] or she and the University would suffer the consequences.

Re: 9A-SU-47233, 07/24/1997

To date the University has received nine letters, eight containing threats. These letters have caused [] to become concerned over her personal safety and the safety of her staff, as well as concerned for the welfare of the University at large.

During this same time period, [] sent two lengthy letters to Gordon B. Hinckley, President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS Church), instructing him to order [] to comply with [] demands or the safety of Church missionaries would be in jeopardy.

After examining [] letters to the University of Utah, his letters to the LDS Church and his criminal history, including indications that [] is emotionally unstable, Assistant United States Attorney, Brooke Wells, determined that [] poses a danger to society and should be either prosecuted or confined.

The facts of this case were presented to a Federal Grand Jury on July 23, 1997. The Grand Jury indicted [] on two counts of []
